Said Court of General Sessions shall sit at Clarksville, Montgomery County, Tennessee. A Court room and adequate facilities for said court shall be provided in the Court House at Clarksville for said Court. It shall be the duty of the custodian of the Court House at Clarksville, Montgomery County, Tennessee, to provide a court room in said Court House for the General Sessions Court. It shall be the duty of the County Judge to provide necessary dockets, furnishings, supplies and all necessary equipment for the proper maintenance of the General Sessions Court, and all expenses of same shall be paid out of the general funds of the County.

SECTION 2. That the Court of General Sessions of Montgomery County, Tennessee, is hereby vested with all the jurisdiction and shall exercise the authority conferred by the Legislature upon Justices of the Peace in civil and criminal cases, suits and actions, which jurisdiction and authority shall be coextensive with Montgomery County, Tennessee, except that said Justices of the Peace shall retain the authority to issue criminal warrants upon proper complaints being made in cases of misdemeanors and such warrants shall be made returnable to the General Sessions Court of Montgomery County; provided, however, nothing in this Act shall be construed to divest the Justices of the Peace their jurisdiction until the qualifications of the Judge for said Court of General Sessions are hereinafter provided. The authority of said Justices of the Peace in their capacity as members of the Quarterly Court or in the performance of the rites of matrimony is in no wise affected by this Act.

The Court of General Sessions for Montgomery County, Tennessee, is hereby vested with jurisdiction to try and determine and render final judgment in all misdemeanor cases, as provided for in Section 1194 of William's Code of Tennessee which are brought before said Court by warrant or information wherein the person charged with such misdemeanor offense enters a plea of guilty or request a trial upon the merits and expressly waives an indictment, presentment and a Grand Jury investigation, and a jury trial. In such cases the trial shall proceed before the Judge and without a Jury, and the Court shall enter such judgment, and, as an incident thereto, may inflict such punishment, within the limits provided by law for the particular offense, as he may deem proper under the peculiar circumstances of such case, but nothing herein shall be construed as undertaking to grant such Judge the power to impose a fine in excess of $50.00 upon any citizen of this State; and provided further, that the Court herein created shall have no jurisdiction of the trial of misdemeanors for which the minimum punishment is a fine of more than $50.00.

Any person aggrieved by the judgment of the Court of General Sessions having criminal jurisdiction rendered under the provisions of this section where trial was had upon the merits and indictment, presentment and grand jury investigation were waived may appeal such judgment to the next term of the Criminal Court of Montgomery County, upon executing bond for the amount of fine and costs, or in lieu thereof, taking the oath prescribed by law for paupers. Such appeal, when properly taken to the Criminal Court of Montgomery County, shall be tried by the Judge of the Criminal Court without a jury unless the defendant demands a jury, and without indictment and presentment, and upon the original warrant issued against such person.

Before the issuance of an execution, or other process, or the performance of any additional service in the case, the plaintiff, or the party seeking the same, shall pay to the Clerk the fees fixed by law for the issuance and service thereof. Such payment made for Court costs shall be credited at once to the party paying the same; and such costs paid as compensation for the service of the officers shall become payable to them only after the return of the process has been made. Upon the defendant agreeing in writing to waive the right to be put to trial only by presentment or indictment by a Grand Jury, and the right to be tried by a jury of his peers, such Court may proceed to hear and determine such cases as is provided in Section 2 hereof. Said waiver shall be written and attached to the warrant substantially in words and figures as follows:

And in juvenile matters the costs and fees shall be the same as those provided by law for Juvenile Courts.
