Chapter IV - Boundaries

Creation of the County

Acts of 1819 Chapter 7

SECTION 1. That the territory contained within the lines hereafter mentioned, shall constitute a county the name of McMinn County.

SECTION 2. That the said county of McMinn, shall be bounded as follows, to wit: Beginning at the point where the meridian line will cross the line of Roane County; thence a direct line to a point which shall be equidistant from Tillasseh, on the Tennessee, and Hiwassee on the Indian boundary line; continuing the same course to the southern boundary line of this state; thence west with said line to the county of Hamilton; thence with the eastern line of said county to the county of Rhea; thence with the lines of the county of Rhea to the county of Roane; thence to the beginning.

SECTION 3. That all the Territory included in the lines hereafter mentioned shall constitute a county by the name of Monroe County.

SECTION 4. That said county of Monroe shall be bounded as follows, towit: Beginning at the beginning of McMinn county; thence running eastwardly with the line of Roane county to the Tennessee river; thence up said river to the mouth of Cowee and Nanteyalee; thence with the dividing ridge between said rivers to the eastern boundary line of this state; thence south with the said line to the line dividing this state from the state of Georgia; thence west to the county of McMinn; thence with the said county to the beginning.

SECTION 5. That for the administration of Justice, the courts of Pleas and Quarter sessions and the circuit courts in said counties shall be held at the following places, to-wit: For the county of McMinn, at the house of Major John Walker, and for the county of Monroe, at the house of William Dixon, on the south bank of Little Tennessee opposite the town of Morganton, at which places the said courts shall be holden, until otherwise provided for by law, under the same rules, regulations and restrictions, and shall exercise the same power and jurisdiction that is possessed by said courts, in other counties of this State.

SECTION 6. That the Sheriff's of the counties of Monroe and McMinn, shall each hold an election at the places appointed for holding courts in said counties on the first Friday and Saturday in May next, for the purpose of electing field officers of the Militia for said counties, under the same rules, regulations and restrictions, as are prescribed by law in similar cases; and the militia of the county of Monroe shall compose the sixty-sixth regiment, and shall be attached to the seventh brigade; and the militia of the county of McMinn shall compose the sixty-seventh regiment, and be attached as aforesaid.

SECTION 7. That it shall be the duty of the commandants of said sixty-sixth, and sixtyseventh regiments, having first been commissioned and sworn according to law, to divide their regiments into such number of companies, as they shall think best, for the convenience of said companies, and it shall be the duty of each of said commandants, to issue writs of election for company officers according to law.

SECTION 8. That said county of Monroe shall be attached to the election district of the county of Blount, and to be governed by the same rules and regulations as other elections are held in Blount county, and the Sheriff of Monroe County shall make return of the votes of his county for electors to elect a president and vice president, Governor, members to congress and members to the state Legislature, to the sheriff of Blount county, under the same rules and regulations as for other counties; and that said county of McMinn shall be attached to the election district of the county of Rhea under the same rules and regulations as govern the counties of Monroe and Blount.

SECTION 9. That it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace for Blount county, to attend at the first court for said county of Monroe, and any Justice of the Peace for Rhea county may attend the first court in the county of McMinn for the purpose of administering the necessary oaths to the Justices of said courts.

Passed: November 18, 1819.

County Seat

Acts of 1821 Chapter 204

SECTION 1. That it shall be the duty of the justices of the peace in each captain's company, to open and hold an election at the place of holding company musters in the county of McMinn on the first Saturday in May next, for the purpose of electing a fit and proper person from each of said captains companies as a commissioner to fix upon a suitable site for said seat of justice in said county of McMinn, to superintend the laying out of the same into convenient streets and alleys and the erection of the public buildings, for said county.

SECTION 2. That all free white male citizens of said county above the age of twentyone years, shall be entitled to vote for said commissioner; PROVIDED, that they shall vote within the captain's company where such persons may reside, and the person getting the highest number of votes in each company aforesaid shall be a commissioner for the purpose aforesaid.

SECTION 3. That said commissioners thus appointed shall appear at the next court of pleas and quarter sessions for said county, and there in open court each of them shall give bond with approved securities to the chairman of said county court and his successors in office, in the penalty of a thousand dollars, conditioned for the due and faithful discharge of the duties devolving upon each of them as commissioner as aforesaid, which said bond shall be filed in the clerk's office of said court.

SECTION 4. That the aforesaid commissioners or a majority of them are hereby authorized and required as soon as may be after said court, to hold a meeting and settle upon a place for the permanent seat of justice for said county of McMinn, which said site shall be fixed at a place in said county to be most permanently advantageous to said county, without regard to any other considerations and after a majority of them shall have agreed upon the places of fixing the seat of justice, shall make such agreement with the owner of the land, whereon they may wish to fix said seat of justice as to them shall seem right and just, and for the lowest price the same can be procured, for any quantity not less than forty, nor more than sixty acres, and shall take a title from the owner of said land to themselves and their successors in office as commissioners of said county town, and in the event the said commissioners shall deem it right to establish the town of Calhoun as the permanent seat of justice for said county, they shall before they establish the same receive a title to themselves and their successors in fee simple, for at least fifty acres of land, adjoining said town in an oblong square, commencing on the river Hiwassee, on the south eastern boundary of said town, and running northwardly along the length of said town, from the owner of the land surrounding said town, without giving any compensation therefor; and in the event said commissioners shall fix upon the town of Columbus as the seat of justice for said county, then and in that case said commissioners shall receive a title from the owner of the land lying immediately below said town in fee simple for the quantity of fifty acres of land commencing on the Hiwassee river, and on the western boundary of said town to run in an oblong square the whole length of said town, and in either case the said commissioner shall lay off the same into convenient lots, streets and alleys, and that the public buildings shall be built upon or near to the boundary line between the old and new town as near the center of the old and new town as a convenient site may be procured, which said lots shall be sold for the use of said town, as hereinafter provided for; but should said commissioners pitch upon another place in said county, they shall lay off the tract of land procured by the commissioners into a public square, lots, streets, and alleys of convenient size, which said town shall be known by the name of

SECTION 5. That said commissioner shall sell the lots in the town laid out in said county in either the ways by this act directed to the highest bidder, upon a credit of twelve months, the sales whereof shall be advertised in the Knoxville Register at least thirty days before said sales.

SECTION 6. That it shall be the duty of said commissioners to contract with suitable workmen to build a courthouse, prison and stocks; the court house and stocks to be placed on the public square, but said commissioners may build said prison upon some other lot in said town as to them shall seem right.

SECTION 7. That said commissioners shall appropriate the money arising from the sale of the town lots aforesaid to the payment of the lands, if they shall be compelled to purchase a site, and the public buildings. If there should be a surplus in their hands after said buildings are finished, after the manner prescribed by said commissioner, (It) shall be deposited in the treasury of said county, and to remain there for the use of said town, subject to the disposition of the county court of said county.

SECTION 8. That the seat of justice shall remain in the town of Calhoun until the public buildings for said county shall be finished and reported by said commissioners to the court of said county, that the same are finished in the manner contemplated by the original plan for the establishment of said buildings.

SECTION 9. That when said commissioners have finished said buildings, and reported the same as by this act required, the court may make any allowance to said commissioners not exceeding one dollar and fifty cents per day.

SECTION 10. That it shall be the duty of the courts of pleas and quarter sessions for the counties of McMinn and Monroe at their first sessions after the first day of January next, to appoint a fit and suitable person on part of each county to run and mark the line dividing said counties, beginning where the same commences on Roane county line, running thence to the Indian boundary to a point in said line that shall be six miles north east of the residence of Caleb Starr, and that the said line shall be run and marked by said persons on or before the June term of McMinn county court, and a fair plat thereof returned to the courts of said county, and when that shall have been done the expense of the same shall be paid at the mutual expense of said counties, not exceeding five dollars a day for each day both said persons may be engaged in running the same.

Passed: November 16, 1821.

Change of Boundary Lines

Acts of 1822 Chapter 194

Whereas the commissioners appointed in pursuance of an act of the General Assembly of this State, passed at the last session, have agreed and pitched upon a site for a seat of Justice in McMinn county, as near the center thereof as an eligible site can be procured, and whereas the land upon which said seat of justice is placed is vacant and unappropriated, and quite poor and barren, being valuable only for the waters and timber; therefore; That the register of East Tennessee shall issue a grant for the one half of the following tract of land, viz: for the south-east quarter of section No. 28, and the north-west quarter section of section No. 34, in the fourth township in range first west of the meridian to the commissioners for the establishment of said seat of justice in said county and their successors in office, in trust for the use and benefit of said town forever, upon said commissioners producing to the said register and certificate of the said surveyor general that the said land is vacant and unappropriated, and that the same is poor, and valuable only for the water and timber upon the same; which said grant shall be perfected as other grants are perfected, and that the said town shall be called and known by the name of Athens; which said site is hereby established and made the permanent seat of justice for said county forever.

Passed: August 23, 1822.

Acts of 1833 Chapter 214

That the line dividing the counties of Rhea and McMinn, shall continue from the south bank of Hiwassee river, crossing said river opposite to the foot of the first large ridge, above the mouth of Price's Creek, thence along the extreme height or top of said ridge, as it meanders until it strikes the south line on the top of said ridge, which runs from the eight mile tree or stake from the mouth of White's creek, as established by the act of 1819, fixing the lines between the counties of Rhea and Roane, leaving John Igon's plantation, William Moore's plantation, Matlock's Mills, and the whole of the back valley so called and its meanders on the north side in Rhea county: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, nothing contained shall prevent the county court of Rhea from levying a county tax on the persons and property of such citizens as reside within the territory hereby annexed to the county of McMinn, for the year 1834, or the collecting the State and county tax in said territory for the year 1834, in such manner as he might or could have done if this act had not passed: AND PROVIDED, FURTHER, the citizens residing in the territory aforesaid, shall not be subject to the payment of tax of any kind, in the county of McMinn for the said year of 1834, nor shall the county court of McMinn be authorized to levy any jail or court house tax, upon real property, actually settled at the passage of this act, lying within the territory aforesaid, for and during the term of ten years; AND PROVIDED ALSO, the dividing line as designated in this act, shall be run and marked by John Locke of Rhea county, at the proper expense of McMinn county, should the county court of McMinn require the same to be done by an order of court, and a copy thereof duly served upon the said John Locke.

Passed: November 28, 1833.

Public Acts of 1833 Chapter 16

The county of McMinn, in addition to its present limits, shall commence at the point on the south bank of [the] Hiwassee river, where the Rhea county line terminates, thence along said line, until it strikes the Hamilton county line at Wilson Evan's.

Passed: November 8, 1833.

COMPILER'S NOTE: Additional provisions to the above Act are not applicable and have therefore been omitted.

Acts of 1837-38 Chapter 304

SECTION 1. That the line between said counties is hereby altered, to commence where the line between the Hiwassee and Ocoee districts strikes the Monroe county line, thence with the line of said district, to the corner of township one, and two of the Ocoee District, in the third range east, between sections five in township two, and section 32, in the township one; thence with the township line to the North Carolina line, and all south and east of the above described line, be and the same is hereby declared to be in the county of Monroe.

Passed: January 18, 1838.

Acts of 1849-50 Chapter 98

SECTION 1. That the dividing line between the counties of Monroe and McMinn be altered or changed so as to commence on Star's mountain on the dividing line between the Hiwassee and Ocoee district, at or near the corner of fractional townships numbers one and two; thence east of north to the Monroe County line in such direction so as not to include more than seventeen qualified voters in the bound taken from McMinn County.

SECTION 2. That the county courts of McMinn and Monroe are hereby authorized to employ the county surveyors of said counties, or any other person that is competent, to run and mark said line; Provided, The same may be deemed necessary, and the county courts of said counties shall make such surveyor running said line, a fair compensation for his services, to be paid out of any money in the county treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SECTION 3. That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to prevent either of the counties of McMinn or Monroe from running and marking said line, and making a fair compensation for the same, as provided in the second section of this act.

SECTION 4. That an act to alter the dividing line between the counties of Sevier and Blount, passed the 18th day of December, 1839, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Passed: February 4, 1850.
