Districts - Reapportionment

The acts listed below have affected the civil districts in Maury County, but are no longer operative regarding elections.

1. Acts of 1903, Chapter 363, divided Maury County into nine Civil Districts instead of twenty-five then existing. The new districts were to be composed of one or more old districts. The polling places would remain the same throughout the county. The change of civil districts would have no effect on the school or road districts.
2. Acts of 1905, Chapter 381, amended the Acts of 1903, Chapter 363 by adding a tenth civil district to the nine created in 1903. The Tenth Civil District would be composed of all the territory embraced in old Civil Districts two, fifteen, and sixteen, as they existed prior to passage of the 1903 act.
3. Private Acts of 1925, Chapter 564, changed the line between the fourth and ninth Civil Districts of Maury County so as to include in the Ninth Civil District the lands of B. F. Dobbins, Caesar Kilcrease, Thomas Lockridge, Richard Lockridge, J. J. Underwood and C. C. Robinette, all of which are then in the fourth Civil District.

Elections

The following is a listing of acts for Maury County which affected the elective process, but which have been superseded or repealed. They are listed here for historical and reference
