Libraries - Historical Notes

Dear Reader:

The following document was created from the CTAS website (ctas.tennessee.edu). This website is maintained by CTAS staff and seeks to represent the most current information regarding issues relative to Tennessee county government.

We hope this information will be useful to you; reference to it will assist you with many of the questions that will arise in your tenure with county government. However, the Tennessee Code Annotated and other relevant laws or regulations should always be consulted before any action is taken based upon the contents of this document.

Please feel free to contact us if you have questions or comments regarding this information or any other CTAS website material.

Sincerely,

Libraries - Historical Notes

1. Private Acts of 1970, Chapter 334, established a "Maury County Governmental Library Commission" composed of five members, three to be appointed by various judges of the courts and two by the Maury County Bar Association. The Commission would acquire, maintain, and operate, a governmental library for the assistance of various public officials to be partially financed by a litigation tax of $1. The act was disapproved by the Quarterly County Court and failed therefore to become effective.
