Health - Historical Notes

The following summaries are included herein for reference purposes.

1. Private Acts of 1951, Chapter 725, amended Private Acts of 1951, Chapter 429, by changing the $1,000 in Section One to $100 so as to make the tax rate apply to $100 property valuation instead of $1,000.
2. Private Acts of 1953, Chapter 158, also amended Private Acts of 1951, Chapter 429, by increasing the maximum tax rate to be levied for the support and maintenance of the hospital from fifteen cents to twenty-five cents. Although the amount of property value to which the tax rate was to be applied was reduced from $1,000 to $100 by the above act, this amendment still recited the $1,000 figure.
