Change of Boundary Lines

Acts of 1796 Chapter 35

WHEREAS the lines between Sevier and Blount counties have not been sufficiently ascertained, to prevent disputes between the citizens of said counties.

That the line dividing Sevier and Blount counties, begin at where the said lines intersect on the top of Bay's Mountain, thence taking the ridge that divides the water of Little River from the waters of French Broad, and with said ridge to the eastern boundary of this state.

Acts of 1798 Chapter 6

That from and after the passing of this act, the county of Blount shall be contained within the following described bounds. Beginning upon the south side of Holston, at the mouth of Little River, thence up the meanders of Little River on the south side, to the mouth of Stock creek, and up the meanders of Stock creek upon the south side, to the head of Nicholas Bartlett's mill pond at high waters; thence a direct line to the top of Bay's mountain, leaving the house of James Willis to the right, within forty rod of the said line; thence along Bay's mountain to the line of the county of Sevier; thence with that line, to the eastern boundary of the state; thence southwardly with the said eastern boundary, to the line lately run and marked agreeably to the late treaty between the United States and the Cherokee Indians, and with that line to the river Tennessee; thence down the Tennessee, with the meanders thereof, to the mouth of Holston; and thence up the meanders of the said river Holston, to the beginning.

December 28, 1798.

Acts of 1801 Chapter 52

SECTION 1. That the boundaries of Blount County shall be extended as follows, viz: Beginning on the eastern boundary of this state where the Sevier county line strikes the same, thence with the North Carolina boundary to the southern boundary of this state, thence with the southern boundary of this state to where it strikes the river Tennessee, thence up said river to the boundary of Knox county, thence with a line described by an act, entitled "An act extending and describing the bounds of Blount county," passed at Knoxville, December the twenty eighth, in the year on one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, to the beginning.

Sec. 2. That it shall and may be lawful for the sheriff, coroner, or any constable of said county, to execute any process criminal or civil, within the said described limits of Blount County.

Sec. 3. That this act shall be in force and use from and after the passing thereof.

PASSED: October 29, 1801.

Acts of 1809 (Second Session) Chapter 20

SECTION 1. That the line which divides the county of Roane from the counties of Rhea and Bledsoe, shall begin on the north bank of Tennessee river, of the mouth of White's creek; thence up White's creek, as it meanders, to the place where the road leading from Knoxville to Nashville, crosses the main fork of said White's creek; thence north, forty west, to the Overton county line. Provided, nothing in this act contained, shall be so construed as to preclude the sheriff of Roane county from collecting the state, county and poor tax, due in that part of Rhea and Bledsoe counties, which is east and north of the line described in the before recited act, for the year one thousand eight hundred and nine.

April 20, 1809.

Acts of 1809 (First Session) Chapter 91

That from and after the passing of this act, that part of Blount county included within the following lines, to wit: Beginning at the extreme height of the round top mountain near William Davis's in Weir's cove, from thence running due south until the said line intersects the Indian boundary line, thence along the said line until it intersects Sevier county line, thence along said line to the beginning, be, and the same is hereby annexed to and shall in every respect whatever compose part of the said county of Sevier: Provided, the aforesaid location may not include any of the citizens of Tuckylechy cove in the county of Sevier: And provided also, that nothing in this law contained, shall prevent the sheriff of Blount from making such collections as he is authorized to make under the laws in force, previous to the passing of this act.

22nd Nov. 1809.

Private Acts of 1835-36 Chapter 143

SECTION 1. That the following shall be the line between the counties of Blount and Monroe, to wit: beginning on the present line at the Militia Springs, thence a direct line from said springs to strike the little Tennessee River, above the farm of David Russell, so as to include said Russell in the county of Monroe: the said river then to be the line to where the said river strikes the North Carolina line; Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent the sheriff of Monroe county from collecting all taxes, both state and county, that may be due from that portion of the citizens residing north of said river, and within the territory hereby taken off said county of Monroe and Provided further, that the sheriff and other officers of said county of Monroe shall have full power and authority to collect all judgments that have been rendered by either the county or circuit courts of said county, or any justice of the peace against any person residing in said territory hereby taken off said county of Monroe.

SEC. 2. That Robert Wear, of Blount county, shall run the line from the Militia Springs to the river as contemplated by this act, and that the county court of Blount pay him a just compensation therefor.

Passed February 13, 1836.

Acts of 1837-38 Chapter 270

SECTION 1. That the following shall be the line between the counties of Blount and Monroe, to wit: Beginning on the present line at the Militia Springs, thence with the original line to where it crosses the present line, thence with the present line to the Tennessee River, above the farm of David Russell; Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent the sheriff of Monroe county from collecting all taxes, both State and county, that may be due from that portion of the citizens residing within the territory hereby taken off said county of Monroe; and provided further, that the sheriff and other officers of said county of Monroe shall have full power and authority to collect all judgments that have been rendered by either the county or circuit courts of said county, or may justice of the peace against any person residing in said territory hereby taken off said county of Monroe.
