Change of Boundary Lines

Acts of 1803 Chapter 70

SECTION 1. That the counties of Davidson and Williamson be divided by a line as follows: Beginning on the Williamson line, on the extreme height of the ridge dividing the waters of Mill Creek from those of Stone's River; thence with that ridge a southwardly direction to the eastern boundary line of said Williamson county; thence with said line south to the south boundary of this state; thence with the boundary of the State, east to the corner of Wilson County; thence with the Wilson county line north to the corner of said county; thence with the line of said county north fifty one and a half degrees west to the southwest corner of said Wilson county; thence a direct course to the mouth of Sugg's Creek; thence a direct line to the beginning. And the county so laid off on the east and southeast on the waters of Stone's river, agreeably to the above described lines, be known and distinguished by the name of Rutherford.

COMPILER'S NOTE: Section 2 concerned administration of Rutherford County. Section 3 allowed the sheriff or collector of the taxes of Davidson or Williamson Counties to collect the taxes due to the their counties prior to the passage of this Act.

Passed: October 25, 1803.

Acts of 1807 Chapter 94

SECTION 1. That Williamson County shall be reduced to its constitutional limits (to wit:) Beginning three hundred and fifty-nine chain south of the old Indian Boundary line upon Duck river ridge, where Dickson county formerly cornered with the said county of Williamson, thence running south seventy-six degrees east to Rutherford County line, and all that part lying north of said line shall be, and remain Williamson County.

COMPILER'S NOTE: All the remaining portions of this Act create and organize Maury County, and are not reproduced here.

Passed: November 16, 1807.

Acts of 1809 Chapter 37

SECTION 1. That the southern boundary line of Williamson County, from the point where the northeast corner of Maury County corners on the said line, shall be altered as to run due from the said point to the eastern boundary line of Williamson County, and the inhabitants south of said line shall become a part of Bedford County, provided, that the Sheriff of Williamson County may first collect the taxes which are due from said inhabitants, in the same manner as if they had not been attached to Bedford County.

SECTION 2. That Newton Cannon be appointed a surveyor to run and mark the said line as directed to be altered, and shall be allowed two dollars per day for the said service, to be paid by the citizens living in that part of Williamson County which is struck off by this Act, and added to Bedford.

SECTION 3. That this Act shall be in force from the fifth day of December, in the year 1809.

Passed: November 8, 1809.

Acts of 1815 Chapter 153

SECTION 1. That that part of Davidson county which lies south of a line drawn due west from the mouth of Little Harpeth River to the northwest corner of Williamson County be and the same is hereby added to and made a part of Williamson County.

SECTION 2. That it shall be the duty of the Justices of the Peace for Williamson County at the next term of the court of pleas and quarter sessions held for said county to appoint a skillful surveyor who shall run and mark the aforesaid line from the mouth of Little Harpeth River to the northwest corner of Williamson County which said surveyor shall receive such compensation for his service as shall be allowed him by said county court, but nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent the sheriff or collector of Davidson County from collecting the state and county tax due from the persons living within that part of Davidson County which is by this act added to Williamson County.

SECTION 3. That the persons living in that part of Davidson county which is by this act added to Williamson County shall not be subject to the payment of a county tax which now is or may hereafter be laid for the purpose of discharging the expenses that have accrued on account of building the court house, jail and other public improvements in Williamson County.

SECTION 4. That the persons by this act added to Williamson County shall not be compelled to open the road leading from Franklin to the town of Charlotte in Dickson County, or a road leading from Franklin to Vernon in Hickman County, or any other new road not heretofore established by law, except those who requested by their petition to be annexed to Williamson County, or shall hereafter sign a petition to the county court of Williamson asking such road to be opened.

SECTION 5. That the Sheriff of Davidson county shall on the last Saturday of December next, open and hold an election at the house of Robert Shannon when every person constitutionally entitled to vote for members of the Legislature and residing in the section of the county intended to be cut off, shall be authorized to vote at said election when and where the sheriff aforesaid shall put the county of Davidson and the county of Williamson in nomination and if a majority of said voters shall vote for the county of Williamson then this act shall take effect and be in full force, otherwise it shall be void to all intents and purposes whatever. Provided that the sheriff for his services in holding said election shall be allowed the sum of five dollars to be paid by the county of Williamson out of any monies in the hands of the trustee of said county on said sheriff making return to Williamson County Court at the January term 1816 that he had performed the services required by this act, and when the election so held he shall make a true return of the amount of votes, and how they are, given under his hand and seal, which shall be sufficient evidence of the fact.

Passed: November 12, 1815.

Acts of 1851-52 Chapter 304

SECTION 1. That the line between the counties of Rutherford and Williamson be changed, so as to run as follows, to wit: Beginning where the Nashville and Shelbyville road now crosses the Bedford County line, running thence northward to M. C. Jordan's southwest corner; thence with his line to the head of Big Harpeth River; thence down Big Harpeth River, as it meanders, to the mouth of the East Fork; thence northward, so as to strike the Rutherford County line near Rehoboth Meeting house, and that the citizens of the portion so taken off, shall be added to, and be citizens of Rutherford County from and after the passage of this act.

Passed: February 17, 1852.

COMPILER'S NOTE: Section Two of this Act referred to DeKalb County and therefore, is not included herein.

Acts of 1867-68 Chapter 13

COMPILER'S NOTE: Only Section 6 of this Act affected Williamson County.

SECTION 6. That the county lines between the counties of Rutherford and Williamson, be so changed as to run as follows: Beginning at the southeast corner of Williamson County and the north boundary line of Bedford County, running westwardly with the Bedford and Marshall County line to the Fayetteville and Farmington Turnpike; thence north with the said Turnpike road to the line between Mrs. Crump's and T. F. P. Allison's land East of the pike; thence east with line between Allison's and Bellafant and J. Jordan's Sr., and Joshua Johnson's heirs, to J. Jordan's northeast corner; thence north to Harpeth River; thence down the same to where the big road that runs from College Grove to Williamson Jordan's old homestead crosses the same; thence east with said road to the Eaglesville, Unionville and Salem Turnpike; thence north with the same to the culvert, near the toll-house; thence east with the big road via John Haley's; and thence eastwardly to the Rutherford County line; and thence, as at present, with said line between Rutherford and Williamson Counties.

Passed: December 3, 1867.

Acts of 1869-70 Chapter 88

COMPILER'S NOTE: Only Section 7 of this Act pertained to Williamson County.

SECTION 7. That the county line between the counties of Williamson and Cheatham be so changed as to run as follows: Commencing at the point where the line of said county of Cheatham connects with the line of the county of Williamson, near the residence of Mrs. Nicholas Knight; running thence north to the south boundary of James Russell's land; thence east to his southeast corner; thence north with the land of said Russell and Joel Telley to said Telley's northeast corner; thence west to the line of Cheatham County; thence north with the line of said Cheatham and Davidson Counties, to a stake east of northeast corner of the land of John W. Ivey; thence west to the present line between said counties of Cheatham and Williamson; and that said sections thus detached from said county of Cheatham, and attached to said county of Williamson, constitute a part of the First Civil District of Williamson County.

Passed: February 28, 1870.
