Real Property Tax Deferral

Reference Number: CTAS-1566

Chapter 831 Deferral

Reference Number: CTAS-1567

Eligibility for Deferral. Pursuant to T.C.A. § 7-64-101, the legislative body of any county or municipality may provide by resolution that any single person age 65 years of age or older, or any married couple of which both are 65 years of age or older, or any person who is totally and permanently disabled, who owns real property, and who uses and occupies the property as a place of residence, may apply to the county trustee of the county where the residence is located for a deferral of payment of all real property taxes on that residence. The deferral of property taxes is not available to single persons age 65 years of age or older, or to married couples of which both are 65 years of age or older or to any family group which has more than one person residing permanently in the principal residence, whose combined gross income, as defined by the Internal Revenue Code, is greater than $12,000 a year.¹

Limitations. The tax deferral provided for in T.C.A. § 7-64-101 applies to no more than $60,000 of the appraised fair market value, as determined from the records of the county tax assessor. In addition, the tax deferral applies only to the principal residence and no more than one acre of land.²

Application Process. Applications for the deferral of real property taxes is made annually, on or before March 1 of each year, unless a later date for applications is provided for by resolution of the legislative body of the county or municipality authorizing the program. Applications received by the county trustee after this date will be considered for deferral of real property taxes for the following tax year. Application forms are prepared by the state Division of Property Assessments. Pursuant to the statute, a $5.00 application fee is imposed to defray the expenses of processing of the application. The fee must be paid when the application is submitted. The county trustee or appropriate municipal official furnishes the county assessor of property a copy of each application for the deferral of property taxes. Whenever an application for the deferral of real property taxes is made, the county assessor of the county where the residence is located must, within 90 days, reassess the property claimed for deferral and notify the county trustee or the appropriate municipal official of the amount of the reassessment and value for tax purposes. After the trustee determines that the applicant qualifies for deferral, the trustee will approve the application only after receiving written approval from the holder of a note secured by any mortgage or deed of trust on the residence. The trustee must provide the register of deeds notice of each approved application for the deferral of taxes.³

Lien for Unpaid Taxes. Whenever a deferral of real property taxes is granted, the assessment of taxes will continue on an annual basis; however, the taxes will not become due and payable until the deferral is terminated. The unpaid balance of assessed real property taxes constitutes a lien against the property, and is subject to interest at the rate of 10 percent a year. The accrued taxes and interest will be a lien of the first priority on the property in the particular local government. The lien will remain in effect until the taxes and interest are paid. The tax deferrals created pursuant to T.C.A. § 7-64-101 et seq. are not subject to the statutory penalties imposed on delinquent taxes, and the lien created in the local government is not subject to any applicable statute of limitation.⁴

Termination of Deferral. Deferrals on the payment of real property taxes, granted pursuant to T.C.A. § 7-64-101 et seq., will be terminated (1) upon the death of the person to whom the deferral was granted and that person's surviving spouse if the spouse qualifies; or (2) when the residence is sold. When the termination is by death, the taxes and interest become due and payable within 18 months of the termination or the settlement of the estate, whichever occurs first. When the termination occurs as a result of the sale of the property, all unpaid taxes and interest thereon become due and payable within 60 days. A deed for the sale of the property will not be accepted for recordation in the office of the county register of deeds until all taxes and interest have been paid.⁵

Reference Number: CTAS-1568

Eligibility for Deferral. Pursuant to T.C.A. § 7-64-201, the legislative body of any county or municipality may provide by resolution that

1. any taxpayer or spouse who is 65 years of age or older who owns residential property that is the person's principal place of residence will pay taxes on that property as any other taxpayer, but taxes on the property in the amount that exceeds the person's property tax for the year 1979 may be deferred at the interest rate set forth in T.C.A. § 7-64-209, with the deferred taxes to remain a lien upon the property as provided by T.C.A. § 7-64-209;
2. any taxpayer who reaches 65 years of age on or before March 27, 1980, who owns residential property that is the person's principal place of residence will thereafter pay taxes on the property in the same amount as other taxpayers, but that any taxes in excess of the 1979 taxes may be deferred until the date of sale of the property or the date of death of the taxpayer, or the death of the surviving spouse, and that any taxpayer who reaches 65 years of age after March 27, 1980, may defer any taxes in excess of the amount in effect in the year the person becomes 65 years of age subject to the other provisions of T.C.A. § 7-64-201 et seq.; and
3. any taxpayer who is 65 years of age or older who purchases residential property as the person's principal place of residence after the person's 65th birthday may defer taxes in excess of the amount of tax in the year the person purchased the property subject to the provisions of T.C.A. § 7-64-201 *et seq.*¹

The deferral benefits provided by T.C.A. § 7-64-201 et seq. also apply to totally and permanently disabled taxpayers, as defined by T.C.A. § 67-5-703, and disabled veterans as defined in T.C.A. § 67-5-704.²

Whenever the fair market value of the property is increased as the result of improvements to the property after March 27, 1980, the assessed value of the property will be adjusted to include the increased value, and the taxes will also be increased proportionally with the increased value. The increased value will not be subject to the benefits of the tax deferral.³

Claim by Surviving Spouse. In the event of the death of one spouse of a married couple who has qualified for deferral pursuant to the statute, if the surviving spouse is over 50 years of age, that spouse can continue to claim the deferral benefits subject to the tax lien already accumulated against the property.⁴

Limitation on Eligibility—Taxpayer Income. No taxpayer or taxpayers whose income exceeds $12,000 annually is eligible for the tax deferral.⁵ The limitation of $12,000 on income from all sources applies to the combined income of both the husband and wife and/or all family members residing in the residence.⁶

Limitation on Value of Principal Residence. The limitation on the value of the principal place of residence is under $50,000 and shall be determined by the appraised fair market value as it appears on the records of the county assessor and not the reduced assessment.⁷ In addition, the tax deferral applies only to the principal residence and no more than one acre of land.⁸

Application Process. Applications for the deferral of real property taxes is made annually, on or before March 1 of each year, unless a later date for applications is provided for by resolution of the legislative body of the county or municipality authorizing the program. Applications received by the county trustee or collector of municipal taxes after the appropriate date will be considered for deferral of real property taxes for the following tax year.⁹ Application forms are prepared by the state Division of Property Assessments. Pursuant to the statute, a $6.00 application fee is imposed to defray the expenses of processing of the application. The fee must be paid when the application is submitted. The county trustee or municipal collector of taxes makes the final determination of eligibility of the applicant.¹⁰

Lien for Unpaid Taxes—Interest. In the event of a sale of the property, the deferred taxes are not subject to penalty as provided for delinquent taxes but are subject to interest at the rate of 10 percent per annum. The accrued taxes and interest at 10 percent per annum remain a first lien on the property in favor of the local government involved until paid and are not subject to the statutes of limitations.¹¹ The tax deferrals created pursuant to T.C.A. § 7-64-201 et seq. are not subject to penalties as provided in Tennessee statutes for delinquent taxes.¹²

Termination of Deferral. The deferred payments become due and payable at the time of sale of the residence and at the time of the death of the beneficiary. In addition, the deferred payments become due and payable in the event of a change of use of the property from the principal place of residence of the beneficiary or beneficiaries.¹³
