Private Acts of 1994 Chapter 125

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any provision of the law or any provision of the charter of any municipality to the contrary, in any counties having a population of not less than eighty-five thousand eight hundred (85,800) nor more than eighty-six thousand one hundred (86,100) according to the 1990 federal census or any subsequent federal census that has a cable television authority established by an intergovernmental agreement, the members of the legislative body of such county and the members of the legislative body of any municipality within such county may serve as members of the cable television authority of such county if the appointments are in accordance with the provisions of the intergovernmental agreement.

SECTION 2. This act shall have no effect unless it is approved by a two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) vote of the legislative body of any county or municipality to which it may apply. Its approval or nonapproval shall be proclaimed by the presiding officer of such legislative body and so certified to the secretary of state.

SECTION 3. For the purpose of approving or rejecting the provisions of this act, it shall be effective upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it. For all other purposes, it shall become effective upon being approved as provided in Section 2.

PASSED: February 23, 1994.
