Boundaries - Historical Notes

The following is a summary of acts which authorized boundary changes for Cannon County.

1. Acts of 1841-42, Chapter 85, changed the lines between Cannon and Rutherford Counties as "beginning at a point in the present line, south of the twelve mile tree and due west of the house of Absalom Bowen, then west to the top of Cripple Creek ridge, thence along the ridge until it intersects the present line and that of the territory lying east of the said line, including the residence of Harold Laseter, so that all this area be attached to Cannon County.
2. Acts of 1841-42, Chapter 90, changed the boundaries between Cannon and Wilson and Cannon and DeKalb Counties. The Act placed the property of Samuel Greer in Cannon County from Wilson County, and then the properties of John Sneed from Wilson County into Cannon County and then this area "thence down Smith's Fork to the DeKalb County line, thence with the said line to the line of Cannon County is established as the same between the counties but Wilson County shall not be reduced below the Constitutional limits."
3. Acts of 1843-44, Chapter 57, transferred the dwelling house and lot belonging to Alfred Hancock out of DeKalb County into Cannon County.
4. Acts of 1846, Chapter 211, Section 8, changed the county line between Cannon and Coffee Counties to include the lands of John Banks, Stith Hays, and Samuel Spangle, in Cannon County.
5. Acts of 1849-50, Chapter 62, Section 30, authorized the official Surveyor of Coffee County to run and mark the line between Coffee and Cannon Counties at the expense of Coffee County.
6. Acts of 1851-52, Chapter 20, moved the campground known as Mount Pisgah out of Rutherford County and into Cannon County.
7. Acts of 1851-52, Chapter 304, Section 2, changed the lines between Cannon and DeKalb Counties so as to include the farm and residence of John Martin, Junior, in DeKalb County, and he shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges as other citizens. This Act was repealed by Chapter 152, Acts of 1853-54, below.
8. Acts of 1853-54, Chapter 108, moved all the land belonging to John H. Wood which was lying in Rutherford County into Cannon County and all the lands lying in Cannon County which belonged to John D. Alexander and Lewis Creson into Rutherford County.
9. Acts of 1853-54, Chapter 118, transferred the portions of land lying in Cannon County which belonged to Thomas Martin and the Widow Kersey into DeKalb County.
10. Acts of 1853-54, Chapter 152, expressly repealed Chapter 304, Acts of 1851-52, Item 6, above, which related to DeKalb and Cannon Counties so that those boundary lines are restored to their places before the passage of that Act. This Act was repealed by the one below which would presumably restore Chapter 304.
11. Acts of 1855-56, Chapter 27, specifically repealed that Section of Chapter 152, Acts of 1853-54, which repealed part of Chapter 304, Acts of 1851-52 both above.
12. Acts of 1857-58, Chapter 47, Section 6, moved the residence and land of James King out of Wilson County and into Cannon County.
13. Acts of 1859-60, Chapter 100, Section 10, provided that the portion of the farm belonging to Charles Hutchison which was located in DeKalb County be removed and attached to Cannon County.
14. Acts of 1859-60, Chapter 196, Section 10, changed the line between DeKalb and Cannon Counties as follows "beginning at the branch at Derby Mill, running up the branch to the Woodbury road near the campground spring and thence east with the main road to the county line." This Act was repealed by Chapter 118, Acts of 1870.
15. Acts of 1867-68, Chapter 12, moved the lands belonging to James Sheshane, George W. Derlong, John Derling, James Anderson, and Hiram Morris out of DeKalb County and into Cannon County.
16. Acts of 1867-68, Chapter 60, Section 12, transferred the S. H. Ford tract of land, now owned by A. F. McFerrin, out of Coffee County and into Cannon County.
17. Acts of 1870, Chapter 118, repealed the 10th Section of Chapter 196, Acts of 1859-60, Item 13, above, which took a described portion of Cannon County and gave it to DeKalb County so that the area is now returned to Cannon County and the boundary lines will resume their former positions.
18. Acts of 1870-71, Chapter 18, Section 3, altered the lines between Coffee County and Cannon County so that all the lands belonging to Newton Jarnagin are included in Coffee County,

"commencing in said Jarnagins south boundary line where it crosses the line between the Counties of Coffee and Cannon, thence east to this southeast corner, thence north with his line to the northwest corner, thence west to the County line."

19. Acts of 1870-71, Chapter 117, changed the lines between Cannon and Rutherford Counties at a point a short distance south of Readyville so as to include in Cannon County about 50 acres of land belonging to John H. Wood, beginning at the line between John H. Wood and J. L. Dunn.
20. Acts of 1879, Chapter 57, Section 3, changed the boundaries between Cannon and Rutherford Counties so that all the lands of A. M. McNight would be included in Rutherford County.
21. Acts of 1883, Chapter 203, repealed Section 4, Chapter 18, Acts of 1870-71, which Section concerned only Wilson and Rutherford Counties and did not involve the Section referring to Cannon County.
22. Acts of 1887, Chapter 228, moved seventeen acres of land belonging to J. C. Jones, out of DeKalb County and joined them with the other 42 acres belonging to Jones in Cannon County.
23. Acts of 1889, Chapter 55, detached the lands of R. A. Hancock and J. R. Dougherty from Wilson County, and attached the same to Cannon County.
24. Acts of 1889, Chapter 57, rearranged the boundary lines between Cannon County and Warren County so that the land belonging to Warren Cummings, known as the Gordon Farm, would be wholly included in Cannon County. This Act was repealed by Chapter 305, Acts of 1899.
25. Acts of 1891, Chapter 254, detached a portion of land from Rutherford County containing about one acre and ten poles which ran through the center of the Porterfield School room and attached it to Cannon County.
26. Acts of 1893, Chapter 58, transferred the land commencing at the northwest corner of Needham Jernigan's lands in Coffee County; thence west with Leroy and William Talbert's lands in Cannon County; to G. P. Burk's lands in Coffee County, so as to include the "Hill Farm" on which A. J. Hill now lives, and also the lands of James Whittamore within the limits of Coffee County.
27. Acts of 1899, Chapter 305, repealed Chapter 57, Acts of 1889, Item 23, above, so that the old Gordon Farm was returned to Warren County.
