Chapter VII - Elections

Special Election

Locating a State Prison in Carroll County

Private Acts of 2001 Chapter 33

SECTION 1. Upon adoption of a resolution by the county legislative body of Carroll County, a non-binding, advisory referendum of the voters of Carroll County shall be held on whether a state prison should be located in Carroll County. Such question shall be placed on the ballot in a special election to be held on the date fixed in such resolution. Such date shall be not less than fifty (50) days nor more than seventy (70) days subsequent to the date the election commission receives the certified resolution.

Upon adoption of such a resolution, the county legislative body shall send a certified copy of the resolution to the county election commission which shall call and conduct a special election for such purposes after giving notice pursuant to §2-12-111(b) that such an election shall be held. The special election shall be held on the date fixed in the resolution. The county election commission shall place the following question on the ballot:

Should a state prison be located in Carroll County?

FOR _____ AGAINST _____

The qualifications of voters on the question shall be the same as those required for participation in the Carroll County general election.

The votes cast on the question shall be canvassed and the results proclaimed by the county election commissioners and certified to the county legislative body.

SECTION 2. This act shall have no effect unless it is approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the legislative body of Carroll County. Its approval or nonapproval shall be proclaimed by the presiding officer of the county legislative body of Carroll County and certified to the Secretary of State.

SECTION 3. For the purpose of approving or rejecting the provisions of this act, it shall be effective upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it. For all other purposes, it shall become effective as provided in Section 2.

Passed: April 2, 2001.

Elections - Historical Notes

Districts - Reapportionment

The acts listed below have affected the civil districts in Carroll County, but are no longer operative regarding elections.

1. Acts of 1901, Chapter 433, created the 11th civil district in Carroll County out of the former 11th and 25th civil districts.
2. Private Acts of 1923, Chapter 60, changed the line between the 11th and 15th civil districts in Carroll County, transferring the farms of W. W. Williams, B. F. Conyers, F. O. Pendergrass, Herbert Cawthon, Joe Taylor, Lewis Owen and Henry Nash from the 15th to the 11th civil district.
3. Private Acts of 1935, Chapter 721, changed the line between the 15th and 16th civil districts in Carroll County, transferring a portion of land belonging to Hettie Christian from the 16th to the 15th civil district.
4. Private Acts of 1939, Chapter 562, changed the line between the 2nd and 19th civil districts in Carroll County, placing in the 2nd civil district the land lying west of Austin Peay Highway and south of the Obion River until it meets Reedy Creek.
5. Private Acts of 1941, Chapter 477, changed the line between the 15th and the 16th civil districts in Carroll County.
6. Private Acts of 1941, Chapter 490, changed the line between the 5th and the 19th civil districts in Carroll County, transferring approximately 21 acres to the 19th civil district.
7. Private Acts of 1963, Chapter 80, changed the line between the 6th and the 20th civil districts in Carroll County, transferring a tract of land to the 20th civil district.

Elections

The following is a listing of acts for Carroll County which affected the elective process, but which have been superseded or repealed. They are listed here for historical and reference purposes. Also referenced below are acts which repeal prior law without providing new substantive provisions.

1. Public Acts of 1821, Chapter 46, placed Carroll County in a state senatorial district with Henderson, Stewart, Humphreys, Perry and Henry Counties. The polls would be compared at Reynoldsborough in Humphreys County.
2. Public Acts of 1822, Chapter 1, divided Tennessee into nine U. S. Congressional Districts. Carroll County was placed in the 9th District, along with the counties of Wayne, Hardin, Lawrence, Perry, Henry, Henderson, Madison, Shelby, and such other counties as might be formed west of the Tennessee River.
3. Public Acts of 1823, Chapter 47, divided Tennessee into eleven electoral districts. The 11th District was composed of Wayne, Hardin, Perry and all counties west of the Tennessee River (which included Carroll County). The 11th District would choose one elector.
4. Public Acts of 1824, Chapter 1, was very similar to Public Acts of 1823, Chapter 47, assigning the same counties to the 11th Electoral District to choose one elector. The electors were to convene at Murfreesborough, Rutherford County, to vote for President and Vice-President of the United States.
5. Public Acts of 1826, Chapter 3, apportioned the state for representation in the General Assembly into 20 Senatorial and 40 Representative Districts. One Senator would be elected jointly by Carroll, Henry, Weakley, Obion, Gibson and Dyer Counties. Carroll, Gibson, Obion and Dyer Counties would elect one Representative jointly.
