Health - Historical Notes

The following act is included herein for reference purposes.

1. Private Acts of 1933, Chapter 853, made it lawful for any person of good moral character holding a diploma of graduation from a reputable Chiropractic School to practice in Clay County after presenting the diploma to the County Court and paying $1.00 for a license, all of which could be done without any formal examination, or test, or without any other requirements than these.
