Private Acts of 1951 Chapter 76

COMPILER'S NOTE: Cumberland County did not fall into the population class specified in the Act, nor did any other Tennessee County. Furthermore, the Index of the Private Acts of 1951 attributes the Act to Cumberland County.

SECTION 1. That in all counties of this State having a population of not less than 18,830 nor more than 18,850, according to the Federal Census of 1950, or any subsequent Federal Census, county superintendents of public instructions shall be elected by the qualified voters of said counties in the regular biennial election in August, 1952, and take office September 1, following his election, and shall serve for a term of four years and until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

The qualifications, duties and compensation of county superintendents of public instruction in counties to which this Act applies shall be the same as that provided by general law for all such county superintendents.

SECTION 2. That this Act shall take effect from and after its passage, the public welfare requiring it.

Passed: January 30, 1951.
