Acts of 1847-48 Chapter 145

SECTION 2. That the county line between the counties of Rutherford and Davidson, be so altered as to commence at a point in the west fork of Hurricane Creek, where the line now crosses said fork; thence down the west fork or branch to Hurricane Creek; thence down Hurricane Creek to Stones River; thence up Stones River to the raft shoal; thence north to the Wilson county line; and that Moses R. Buchanan of Rutherford county, be appointed to run and mark the line from the River to the Wilson county line, and shall be paid for the same by the petitioners seeking to be attached to Davidson county. The citizens residing west of the above described line shall be attached to and become citizens of Davidson county, from and after the first day of May next.

COMPILER'S NOTE: Section 1 did not refer to Davidson County and is not reprinted.

Passed: February 4, 1848.
