Private Acts of 1939 Chapter 182	3
---	----------

Private Acts of 1939 Chapter 182

SECTION 1. That it shall be the duty of tax assessors in all counties in the State of Tennessee with a population of not less than 23,900 nor more than 24,000, according to the Federal Census of 1930, or any subsequent Federal Census, to maintain and keep open an office during reasonable business hours at the courthouse, or at some convenient place in the county seat, at which office either the tax assessor or a deputy capable of discharging the duties of the office of tax assessor shall be on hand during office hours for the purpose of discharging the duties of such office. Office space shall be provided by the county, and it is hereby declared to be the duty of the Quarterly County Courts of such counties to provide adequate office space for the tax assessors of such counties.

SECTION 2. That all tax or assessment books in such counties shall be kept in the office of the county tax assessor at the county seat during business hours, except when same are in use in making assessments, or in making up the tax books.

SECTION 3. That said County Tax Assessors shall from time to time examine the current Deed Books in the office of the County Registers of such counties and shall ascertain from such Deed Books and enroll in a book or books to be kept by him in his office, the following facts to be ascertained by him from an examination of the deeds recorded in such deed books, to-wit:

- (1) The names of the grantors or vendors and of the purchasers, in each deed;
- (2) The district in which the land conveyed by each deed is situate;
- (3) The boundaries of the land and the number of acres conveyed in each deed; and
- (4) The consideration or purchase price for the land as stated in each deed.

When such County Tax Assessors make their next assessment of real estate, after ascertaining such information from an examination of the deed books in the Register's Office, they shall use such information in connection with their assessment of the real estate covered by such deeds.

SECTION 4. That it shall be the duty of the tax assessor in such counties, in person or by deputy, to go on the premises and examine all realty to be assessed, and for failure to do so he shall be subject to a fine of not less than $5.00 nor more than $10.00 in each case. It shall further be the duty of such tax assessor to perform the other duties imposed by Section 1357 of the 1932 Code of Tennessee, and all other duties imposed upon tax assessors by the general laws of Tennessee.

SECTION 5. That the compensation of the Tax Assessor in such county shall be fixed by the Quarterly County Courts of such counties in an amount sufficient to adequately pay such Tax Assessor for his services and his necessary expenses in making assessments in said counties in no event to exceed the amount of Twenty-Four Hundred Dollars ($2,400.00) per year.

As amended by: Private Acts of 1949, Chapter 305

SECTION 6. That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions hereof be and the same are hereby repealed.

SECTION 7. That this Act shall take effect from and after April 6th, 1939, the public welfare requiring it.

Passed: February 6, 1939.
