Private Acts of 1965 Chapter 244

SECTION 1. That the Chairman of the County Court of Fayette County, Tennessee, shall, after the effective date of this Act, have concurrent jurisdiction with the Chancery Court for such county in actions to allow guardians and conservators in such county to encroach upon the corpus of their ward's estate for the use and benefit of such ward.

SECTION 2. That this Act shall have no effect unless the same shall have been approved by two-thirds vote of the quarterly county court of any county to which it may apply on or before the next regular meeting of such quarterly county court occurring more than thirty days after its approval by the Chief Executive of this State, or after its otherwise effective date. Its approval or non-approval shall be proclaimed by the presiding officer of the body having jurisdiction to approve, and shall be certified by him to the Secretary of State.

SECTION 3. That this Act shall be effective from and after its passage, the public welfare requiring it, but the provisions thereof shall not become operative until validated as provided in Section 2 herein.

Passed: March 11, 1965.
