Private Acts of 1951 Chapter 353

SECTION 1. That in counties of this State having a population of not less than 26,200, nor more than 26,300, by the Federal Census of 1940, or any subsequent Federal Census, the Quarterly County Court of said counties are hereby authorized to pension any and all employees of said county who have been in the county service for as much as 35 years and who have attained the age of 70, provided, however, that no pension in excess of $50.00 a month shall be granted by said Quarterly County Court. Said pension shall be payable monthly out of the General County Account.

SECTION 2. That this Act shall take effect from and after its passage, the public welfare requiring it.

Passed: March 2, 1951.
